ABOUT BELGRADE

Belgrade is the capital of Serbia. Belgrade is situated in South-East of Europe, at the very entrance from Central Europe to Balkan Peninsula. It lies at the confluence of the Sava and Danube Rivers in north central Serbia, where the Pannonian Plain meets the Balkan Peninsula.

With almost 2.000.000 citizens, Belgrade is the capital of Serbian state, culture, education, science and economy. As a result of its turbulent history, many nations have been living in Belgrade for centuries; hence Belgrade's charming mixture of both Central Europe and Orient.

This is the city with the biggest Christian Orthodox church at Balkan. It is a melting pot of diverse cultures that has produced a characteristic spirit of openness and cosmopolitanism

Most of the Serbian economy is settled in Belgrade. Also, the vast majority of international companies choose Belgrade as their base not only for Serbia but for the whole region of Southeast Europe. This makes Belgrade one of the most important economic cities in the region.

Belgrade is one of those cities with a "never-sleeping" reputation. During the day, one can find himself amazed with the number of people in the City Center. Whether you are looking for a leisure in some of the numerous Belgrade cafes, or looking for attractions in Belgrade pedestrian zones of Republic Square, Knez Mihajlova street, Obilić square and Kosančić square – here you will find many sites to visit and explore. National Theatre with Opera, National Museum, numerous art galleries are just some of the attractions which lead you to the most famous part of Belgrade – beautiful Kalemegdan Park and Belgrade fortress. Here you can admire the rich history dating almost 7 milleniums, and enjoy the spectacular panorama over the confluence of Sava and Danube Rivers.

Belgrade has a lot of interesting attractions and a big repository of beautiful items inside its museums, churches, streets, parks.

Being exciting and dynamic, Belgrade is a strong and irresistible urban magnet.
